

1834.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 240.

bly, chapter thirty-five, entitled, an act to authorise certain commissioners to lay off a road from the Store of William Dorsey, at Back Creek, in Somerset county, to the county road, at the expense of said Dorsey, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 239.

Passed Mar. 18, 1835 An act to divorce Virginia Williams, from her husband, Isaac Williams.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it appers to this General Assembly that Virginia Williams and Isaac Williams, have been living separate and apart for seven years last past; And whereas, it also appears that although no imputation can properly rest upon the moral character or conduct of either party, the affections of the parties are so entirely alienated as to preclude all hope of their living together in harmony and peace;—Therefore,

Divorce

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Virginia Williams, be, and she is hereby divorced, a vinculo matrimonii, from her husband, Isaac Williams.

Resume name

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Virginia Williams may, and she is hereby authorised, to reassume and use her maiden surname; Provided, nevertheless, that nothing contained in this act, shall operate, or be construed, to render the issue of the said Virginia Williams and Isaac Williams, lawfully begotten and born during their coverture, illegitimate.

CHAPTER 240.

Passed Mar. 18, 1835 An act to divorce Mary Baldwin, of Baltimore City, from her husband, James Baldwin.

Divorce

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Mary Baldwin be, and she is hereby divorced from her husband James Baldwin, and the marriage heretofore had and solemnized between them, is hereby declared to be